

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

It is important you read the following information before filling out this application form.

This form is only to be used if you wish to appeal against one of the following:

1. a determination made under s 87 of the Building Act 1993 ('the Act') as to the appropriateness of the work; or
2. a declaration under s 89 of the Act; or
3. a failure, within a reasonable time, or refusal to make that determination or declaration; or
4. a request under s 87 of the Act to give more information.

This form is not to be used if the adjoining owner wishes to;

1. apply for compensation for inconvenience, loss or damage suffered during the carrying out of protection work.

This form is not to be used if the building site owner or the adjoining owner wishes to refer a dispute over;

1. the survey; or
2. insurance; or
3. the costs of assessing proposed protection work; or
4. the costs of supervising protection work; or
5. any other matter arising under Part 7 (protection of adjoining property) of the Act of which the building site owner and the adjoining owner are in dispute.

The form for applications for compensation and to refer disputes are located here: Form-E-Dispute-application.pdf \(buildingappeals.vic.gov.au\).

Parties are encouraged to familiarise themselves with Practice Notes 8A and 8B before they commence a proceeding at the Board in connection with protection work, which provides guidance in respect of protection work related proceedings.

Those Practice Notes can be located here:

1. Practice Note 8A \(2021\) - Disputes and Compensation proceedings in respect of Part 7 of the Building Act 1993 \(Protection Work\) \(PDF, 250.08 KB\); and
2. Practice Note 8B \(2021\) - Appeal proceedings in respect of Decisions made under Part 7 of the Building Act 1993 \(Protection Work\) \(PDF, 241.33 KB\).

Please note there are strict time limits prescribed by the Building Regulations 2018 by which an appeal application must be filed with the Board. If an appeal application is filed after the date by which the application must be filed, the Board does not have the power to extend the time in which the application may be filed with the Board, nor does it have jurisdiction to hear and determine the application if the appeal is filed after the date by which the appeal must be filed. For more information on appeal periods, please refer to page 7 on this document.

	I would prefer the Board to make its determination based on written submissions.
	I would prefer the Board to make its determination following a hearing (in-person or remotely via videoconferencing technology).

The Board will determine whether it is appropriate to:

- refrain from having a hearing and make its determination based on the written submissions of the parties.

If there is a hearing, you will be given a minimum of seven (7) days' notice of your appeal hearing date. It is expected that you will be ready to proceed on that day. Parties to the appeal may attend and/or be represented at the hearing.

If a person provides information or documentation to the Board, the person must also provide the same information or documentation to all of the other parties to the proceeding.

11 FAST TRACK

If you are seeking a fast track appeal hearing, you must complete the Application for a Fast Track Appeal form, which is available at Appeal proceedings | Building Appeals Board and pay the prescribed application fee. Only a party to an appeal proceeding can apply.
